I am very disappointed that you refused to hear the case Parker v. Pidgeon that will force taxpayers to fund homosexual marriage benefits. The conservative Republicans are outraged of which I am one, are outraged.

Why would you not stand and be counted for traditional marriage? Why should we have to fund someone else's immorality. Next will you be a part in forcing men like me to be silenced in the pulpit as well?

A very unhappy registered Texas voter.

Honorable Justices,

I am extremely disappointed to learn that ALL of you abandoned Constitutional principles and Biblical values in forcing the State of Texas (i.e., MY MONEY) to pay for homosexual marriage benefits. How could you in good conscience cave in to this leftist evil? I'm so proud that Justice Devine had the courage to stand up to all of you who wimped out! Some of you I personally voted for because of your Christian principles!!

I urge you to grant the motion for rehearing the Parker v Pidgeon case. You all were elected to represent us and to stand up for our religious liberties and our Tenth Amendment Constitutional States' Rights, rather than caving into the homosexual political movement.

May God have mercy on you and move you to repent.

Respectfully,

Patricia Geary

CRT Organized 70 Texas State Legislators and Conservative Leaders to Sign an Amicus Brief Defending Traditional Marriage

Dear Compatriot,
Here is great news! Conservative Republicans of Texas organized 70 legislators and conservative leaders from across the state of Texas to sign an amicus brief in support of our motion for rehearing in Pidgeon v. Parker by the Texas Supreme Court which deals with homosexual partner benefits.

Here are the names of the legislators and conservative leaders who signed on to the amicus brief:

Statewide Official: Texas Railroad Commissioner Ryan Sitton

Republican Candidates for State Senate and House of Representatives: Briscoe Cain, Valoree Swanson

Conservative Leaders throughout Texas (each person joins this brief in their individual capacity and not as a member of any particular organization): David Barton, Marc Cowart, Jim Graham, Charlie Hartland, Ann Hettinger, Steven F. Hotze, M.D., Tim Lambert, Allan Parker, Gary Polland, George Lavender, Terry Lowry, Sam Malone, Mayes Middleton, Rick Scarborough and Jeff Yates

Attorney General Ken Paxton and Lt. Governor Patrick have told me that they are committed to filing an amicus brief on this case and the Attorney General's staff is already working on it.

If you do not see your legislator on this list, then please contact them and ask them why they chose not to sign on to the brief.

You can go to http://www.jaredwoodfill.net/files/Pidgeon_v_Turner-10-14-16.pdf to see the copy of the amicus brief. You will find the signatories on page 4 of the brief.

Only Conservative Republicans of Texas organized the 70 legislators and leaders who signed on to the amicus brief that was submitted to the Texas Supreme Court last Friday.

Please support our continuing efforts to stand for conservative and Biblical values in state government by investing $10, $50, $100, $250, $500, $1000 or more now at <http://www.crtpac.com/donate/>.

As you are aware, on Friday, September 2, eight of the nine members of the Texas Supreme Court refused to hear the case Parker v. Pidgeon on appeal, thus choosing to abandon traditional marriage and force taxpayers to fund homosexual marriage benefits. All Texas Supreme Court Justices are Republicans.

Only Justice John Devine stood for traditional marriage and opposed the efforts of the homosexual political movement to radically transform our country by creating moral anarchy through judicial activism.

The eight other members of the Texas Supreme Court, Justices Nathan Hecht, Jeff Brown, Eva Guzman, Debra Lehrmann, Don Willett, Phil Johnson, Jeffrey Boyd and Paul Green abandoned Constitutional principles and Biblical values. Only Justice Devine had the courage to stand for states' rights and for the fundamental right of Texas taxpayers to oppose paying for homosexual marriage benefits. The other members of the Texas Supreme Court are requiring the state of Texas to fund homosexual marriage benefits. Only the legislature has the power of the purse, not the courts.

It is critical that these justices hear from you! Let them know how disappointed you are that they refused to review this case. Their contact information may be found at the end of this letter.

The lawsuit, Parker v. Pidgeon, was the case brought against the City of Houston by Jared Woodfill, while he was chairman of the Republican Party of Harris County, for providing taxpayer funded benefits to homosexual partners of city employees. Jared Woodfill is currently President of Conservative Republicans of Texas and Conservative Republicans of Harris County.

Just because the US Supreme Court grants special rights to groups based upon their activities, no matter how wrong their activities may be, it does not mean that the taxpayers have to fund that activity.

Justice John Devine was the only Texas Supreme Court Justice who demonstrated the courage of his convictions. Justice Devine rightly opposed allowing the U. S. Supreme Court ruling on homosexual mirage to be extrapolated into forcing Texas cities to provide homosexual benefits to their employees.

Contact Justice Devine and thank him for having the courage of his convictions at (512) 463- [REDACTED] or john.devine@scj.state.tx.us

It is outrageous that the other eight Republican Justices bowed to the homosexual political agenda. Now you and other taxpayers will be forced to pay for the benefits of homosexual partners which directly violates our First Amendment rights of freedom of religion.

Email and call Justices Nathan Hecht, Jeff Brown, Eva Guzman, Debra Lehrmann, Don Willett, Phil Johnson, Jeffrey Boyd and Paul Green and tell them to grant the motion for rehearing the Parker v Pidgeon case. Remind them that we elected them to stand up for our religious liberties and our Tenth Amendment

Constitutional States' Rights, rather than caving into the homosexual political movement. We, the taxpayers, should not have to subsidize someone's immoral behavior. Ask these justices to grant a motion for rehearing for the lawsuit, Parker v. Pidgeon.

Justice Johnson,

I was VERY disappointed to learn of your decision regarding Parker v Pidgeon by refusing to hear the case. Please be reminded them that YOU were elected to stand up for religious liberties and our Tenth Amendment Constitutional States' Rights, rather than caving into the homosexual political movement.

I, as a United States citizen and taxpayer, should not have to subsidize someone's immoral behavior. I ask you to reconsider and grant a motion for rehearing for the lawsuit, Parker v. Pidgeon, and then voting in SUPPORT of traditional marriage in the State of Texas.

Sincerely,
